The Yugo

The Rise and Fall of the Worst Car in History

Hill and Wang Six months after its American introduction in 1985, the Yugo was a punch line; within a year, it was a staple of late-night comedy. By 2000, NPR's Car Talk declared it "the worst car of the millennium." And for most Americans that's where the story begins and ends. Hardly. The short, unhappy life of the car, the men who built it, the men who imported it, and the decade that embraced and discarded it is rollicking and astounding, and one of the greatest untold business-cum-morality tales of the 1980s. Mix one rabid entrepreneur, several thousand "good" communists, a willing U.S. State Department, the shortsighted Detroit auto industry, and improvident bankers, shake vigorously, and you've got The Yugo: The Rise and Fall of the Worst Car in History. Brilliantly re-creating the amazing confluence of events that produced the Yugo, Yugoslav expert Jason Vuic uproariously tells the story of the car that became an international joke: The American CEO who happens upon a Yugo right when his company needs to find a new import or go under. A State Department eager to aid Yugoslavia's nonaligned communist government. Zastava Automobiles, which overhauls its factory to produce an American-ready Yugo in six months. And a hole left by Detroit in the cheap subcompact market that creates a race to the bottom that leaves the Yugo . . . at the bottom.

Improbable Rendezvous

CreateSpace While war historians may disagree over whether Japan had plans to invade Australia in WW2, all will agree three Japanese midget submarines came into Sydney Harbour with serious intent in 1942. But little has surfaced [until now] of a fourth midget submarine and the story of survival of one of the Japanese crew. Alone and adrift, the youthful survivor was hauled aboard a coastal steamer only to be dumped on remote Lord Howe Island with another unwelcome passenger. The two survived in the wild for a while before an island woman came on the scene. Denied the pleasures of the island paradise, the Japanese submariner was inhumanely interned until an amorous liaison secured his passage to freedom. In 2006, 64 years later, bestselling Japanese novelist Hiraku Makimura lands in Sydney to speak at a writers' seminar. From the moment a young woman steps into his hotel room he is on an emotional rollercoaster, while driving a Subaru around Sydney turns into a fatal nightmare. The hotel receptionist is an added distraction, until a woman with her own agenda takes Makimura in hand, leading him surreally to an improbable rendezvous with the submerged past__an encounter that rocks him to the core of his being.
